Local Advocates for Global Impact...

...is linking local students, community members, and leaders across sectors to unite in taking leadership to drive sustainable development within San Diego Community - local action - based on the understanding of inclusive, globally shared responsibilities - global citizenship.

Hosted at the University of San Diego, Joan B. Kroc Theater, our intent is to engage our audience to advocate for sustainable development within our local, diverse community. The event features a workshop and panel discussion, free of charge to registered guests.
